2. Materials Subject to Copyright Assignment Agreement.

The Contributor/Author is preparing for NBCC a Work, tentatively entitled _____ (the Work), to be published by NBCC. Within the meaning of the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. § 101, the Work is a Work for Hire ordered or commissioned by NBCC.

As used in this Agreement, the term “Work” includes the following: the final document, publication, and/or all other related, original materials prepared by the Contributor/Author; all drafts of such documents, publications, and materials; and, any other original materials and work products submitted for consideration for inclusion in the Work.

3. Grant of Copyright Assignment/Use Permission to Contributor.

The Contributor/Author intends and agrees that the Work will become, and is, the sole property of NBCC, and that NBCC will own the copyright and other ownership interests in such Work. To the extent that the Work is not a Work for Hire, the Contributor/Author transfers and assigns all worldwide copyright and other ownership interest(s) in the Work to NBCC for the life of such interests. This assignment of all right, title, and interest in the Work to NBCC is a transfer of the full ownership in and to the Work, including all rights of reproduction, distribution, performance, display, and the right to create derivative works.

NBCC grants non-exclusive, limited permission to the Contributor/Author to use the Contributor/Author’s original material in the Work, at no cost, for his/her own personal, academic use, including use of the Work in future books and other publications authored by the Contributor/Author, provided that: the NBCC copyright is properly acknowledged; no NBCC endorsement is implied; and, the Contributor/Author indicates that the Work was originally published by NBCC. Additionally, NBCC grants the Contributor/Author the limited right to present the Work orally.

In consideration of this Agreement, NBCC agrees to acknowledge that the Contributor/Author has prepared the Work, and will give full and complete attribution in all reproductions of the Work. It is understood and accepted that the Contributor/Author will receive no royalty or other compensation from NBCC for this assignment of the copyright for the Work to the NBCC.

4. Warranties by the Contributor/Author.

The Contributor/Author represents and warrants the following:

- a. The Contributor/Author is the author of the Work and that, to the best of his/her knowledge, the Work is original and has not been previously published in this exact, or a substantially similar form;
- b. The Work does not violate or infringe upon any existing copyright, common law literary right, or privacy right of any third party;
- c. The Work does not contain any libelous, defamatory, or otherwise unlawful statements;
- d. The Contributor/Author has full power to enter into this Agreement; and,
- e. The Contributor/Author owns all rights granted hereunder free of any liens or encumbrances.

5. Complete Agreement/Governing Law.

The Parties represent that this Agreement constitutes the entire understanding and agreement by and between them on this subject. No other terms will be applicable to this Agreement unless specifically approved in writing by both Parties.
